The officers placed in immediate charge of this work should first completely familiarize themselves with the form and its contents. The first seven interrogatories are essential to the filing of the petition in the court having jurisdiction of the place of residence to test the applicant's qualifications. Therefore the applicant, whenever practicable, should be furnished with this form in duplicate and with its return be required to furnish the information in duplicate. It should then be reviewed carefully and the applicant summoned before the three officers.

All errors and omissions should be corrected, and the oath of allegiance signed in duplicate before the designated officer, who should read the oath of sovereignty in the oath. When preferable the form may be filled in by a third person in all respects except the signature. Two of these officers will examine the petition and the third officer will swear the applicant to the petition and oath of allegiance and the affiant's to the time of military service, all in duplicate.

The applicant should be accorded full recognition as a citizen of the United States from the date of the taking of the oath.

The affidavits covering the military service and the oath of allegiance required to be taken in accordance with the terms of section 1750 of the Revised Statutes may be taken in full compliance with the law under the provisions of Article 144 of the Articles of War as contained in the provisions of these regulations and August 29, 1916 (chap. 418, U. S. Stat. L., vol. 39, pt. 1, pp. 619-669.) This article confers upon certain officers of the military establishment in foreign places the general powers of a consul of the United States in the administration of oaths, the execution and acknowledgment of legal instruments, the attestation of documents, and all other forms of notarial acts to be executed by persons subject to military law.

The affidavits of the witnesses should be made from the service record of the soldier and cover his entire period of military service. Example: Soldier inducted into the service August 5, 1917; later went to France, coming into his present unit March 30, 1918; and came under the observation of the two officers who act as affiants on June 2, 1918. The two affiant officers should certify from the records as follows: "August 5, 1917, to date." The affidavit is based upon the military records.

FOREIGN SOVEREIGNTIES AND TITLES OF THEIR RULERS.

Abyssinia	Lij Eyassu, King of Kings of Ethiopia.
Austria	Charles, Emperor of Austria and Apostolic King of Hungary.
Belgium	Albert I, King of the Belgians.
Bulgaria	Ferdinand I, King of the Bulgarians.
Denmark	Christian X, King of Denmark.
Germany	William II, German Emperor.

FOREIGN REPUBLICS AND FORM OF RENUNCIATION OF ALLEGIANCE

Andorra	The Republic of Andorra

Brazil	The United States of Brazil.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

The officers placed in immediate charge of this work should first completely familiarize themselves with the form and its contents. The first seven interrogatories are essential to the filing of the petition in the court having jurisdiction of the place of residence of the applicant. Therefore the applicant, whenever practicable, should be furnished with this form in duplicate and with its return be required to be filled in duplicate. It should then be reviewed carefully and the applicant summoned before the three officers.

All errors and omissions should be corrected, and the oath of allegiance signed in duplicate before the designated officers. The officers should then swear the applicant to the petition and oath of allegiance and the affiants to the time of military service.

The affidavits covering the military service and the oath of allegiance required to be taken in accordance with the provisions of Article 114 of the Articles of War as contained in the Statutes may be taken in full compliance with the law under the provisions of Article 114 of the Articles of War as contained in the Statutes of August 29, 1916 (chap. 418, U. S. Stat. L., vol. 39, pt. 1, pp. 619-669.) This article confers upon certain officers of the military service the general powers of a consul of the United States in the administration of oaths, the execution and acknowledgment of legal instruments, and all other forms of notarial acts to be executed by persons subject to military law.

The affidavits of the witnesses should be made from the service record of the soldier and cover his entire period of military service. The applicant entered into the service August 5, 1917; later went to France, coming into his present unit March 30, 1918; and came under the provisions of the law as affiants on June 2, 1918. The two affiant officers should certify from the records as follows: "August 5, 1917, to date." The affidavit is filed with the records.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

The officers placed in immediate charge of this work should first completely familiarize themselves with the form and its objects. The first seven interrogatories are essential to the filing of the petition in the court having jurisdiction of the place of residence of the applicant. Therefore the applicant, whenever practicable, should be furnished with this form in duplicate and with its return be required to furnish the same in duplicate. It should then be reviewed carefully and the applicant summoned before the three officers. All errors and omissions should be corrected, and the oath of allegiance signed in duplicate before the designated officer, who should insert the correct sovereignty in the oath. When preferable the form may be filled in by a third person in all respects except the signature. Two of these officers will act as affiants and the third officer will swear the applicant to the petition and oath of allegiance and the affiants to the time of military service, all in duplicate. The applicant should be accorded full recognition as a citizen of the United States from the date of the taking of the oath of allegiance. The affidavits covering the military service and the oath of allegiance required to be taken in accordance with the terms of section 1750 of the Revised Statutes may be taken in full compliance with the law under the provisions of Article 114 of the Articles of War as contained in the provisions of the act approved August 29, 1916 (chap. 418, U. S. Stat. L., vol. 39, pt. 1, pp. 619-669.) This article confers upon certain officers of the military service the general powers of a consul of the United States in the administration of oaths, the execution and acknowledgment of legal instruments, the attestation of marriages, and all other forms of notarial acts to be executed by persons subject to military law. The affidavits of the witnesses should be made from the service record of the soldier and cover his entire period of military service. Example: Soldier inducted into the service August 5, 1917; later went to France, coming into his present unit March 30, 1918; and came under the observation of the military service as affiants on June 2, 1918. The two affiant officers should certify from the records as follows: "August 5, 1917 to date." The affidavits should be filed in the records.

MEMORANDU

Citizenship Judgments
Cannot Be Attacked
Appellate Court Holds

Judgments in citizenship proceedings are not subject to review by the state or federal courts of appeal, the Third District Court of Appeal yesterday held in the case of Peter J.
Wilkie, Sacramento attorney, who appealed from the judgment of the Sacramento Superior Court in denying his application for naturalization.
Wilkie is a native of Scotland.

The Appellate Court held that naturalization is a matter of grace and not of right, and that the state courts are given wide discretion in passing on such applications.

Testimony at the hearing on the naturalization application in 1920 before Superior Judge J. E. Prewett of Placer county, sitting in Sacramento, involved the charge that Wilkie had sold memberships in the "American Masonic Federation," which it was alleged had no connection with established Masonic orders. The court denied Wilkie's application on the ground that Wilkie "betrayed a state of mind not compatible with good citizenship."

10 BE IT REMEMBERED That this cause came on for trial on the 11 15th day of September 1920 before the Hon. J. M. Prewett, pre-12 siding, and that after the hearing of certain testimony the 13 said cause was continued until November 16th. 1920 and the tak-14 ing of testimony completed on said day, whereupon to sustain its 15 contention against the allowance of applicant's petition the 16 United States presented the following matter.

17 J. J. Wilkie, the applicant, being duly sworn testified as 18 follows:

19 About June 26th. 1920, Judge Busick, asked me to call at 20 his chambers in the Court House but only as a friendly visit 21 when we had a conversation concerning my application for natural-22 ization. He asked me why I could not take my application to the 23 Federal Court, and I replied that my money had been paid in, my 24 witnesses examined and I was ready for final examination in the 25 Superior Court.

26 He suggested that he did not think that I ought to force the 27 matter to an issue because certain parties might indict me, and 28 I said to him my conduct is open for inspection and we will wait 29 and see the outcome. It is one thing to bring charges and another

Judge C O Busick, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Sacramento, testified in substance as follows:

are the applicant for about three years. I did not advise him to take his application to the Federal Courts. I never told him that he would be indicted nor that he must resign from the Federation. I never told him that I would see to it that no charges were filed against him. I did not say to him that if he resigned or submitted proof of his resignation there would be no trouble.

I did not tell him that if he did not withdraw from the Federation he could not get his final papers in my court, nor that he would never get his papers in my court nor did I tell him anything in any way like this. I never told him anything of the sort.

Mr. Wilkie asked me for a continuance of the matter and I informed him that I would grant it. Later he came into court and insisted upon proceeding with the matter, although the other side in reliance upon his request for a continuance ~~was not prepared.~~ He then denied that he had asked for a continuance.

1 IN Re WILKIE:

2 The petitioner, P. J. Wilkie, is an applicant for Natural-3 ization before this court. Objections to the granting of his pe-4 tition have been filed and the matter has been regularly heard.
5 The chief contention of the Government and of the parties filing 6 objections is that the petitioner is not a man of good moral 7 character.

8 The chief acts charged against him consist of his relations to 9 an organization known under the name of the "American Masonic 10 Federation" of which he is a member and propagandist. It is 11 charged that he represented to divers persons that the aforesaid 12 organization is the well known fraternity known as Free and Ac-13 cepted Masons, and that thereby he induced them to become mem-14 bers of this little known organization. The evidence upon this 15 point is practically a blank.

16 The real delinquency of the petitioner appears to be, as 17 viewed by the objectors, that is a member of this organization.
18 Yet the court is compelled to hold that this is not a crime nor 19 even a moral delinquency. It is to be observed that the organization 20 is treasonable, that it teaches bad morals or that it is otherwise 21 opposed to the well-being of the people. That the major organiza-22 tion is one of the highest in our midst is no argument that the 23 other is the opposite. In truth, the inquiry does not involve the 24 merits of the two organizations. It would, of course, be a moral 25 and a legal crime for a person to misrepresent the purposes or 26 standing of an organization and thereby defraud innocent victims 27 out of their money. But there is no suspicion that the applicant 28 has been guilty of this or has connived at it in others. It seems 29 that every applicant for admission into it is required to sign a 30 written declaration that he knows that it has no connection with 31 the order of Free and accepted Masons. It is true that such a pre-32 caution is not conclusive and that it may under certain conditions

1 and with certain ill intent, would be a clever device to defraud
2 them and still keep them to evade the law. But it would be im-3 possible for the court to speculate this without proof. The wit-4 nesses have testified that the reputation of petitioner is not 5 good, and one of them has suggested that it. But these testi-6 monies base their criticisms upon the fact that he is a member of 7 this labor organization. It is correct that the chief real 8 criticism of petitioner in connection with this organization is 9 the fact that it seems to be getting after and an encroachment 10 upon the older organization. This appears especially in the use 11 of its name of American Laboric Federation; yet it would take 12 much hard work on the part of the court to deny to an applicant 13 the right of citizenship for this reason alone. It is true, as 14 above suggested that the use of this organization to defraud 15 workers of their money would be a crime, but if the applicant and 16 other persons choose to align themselves with this order, it is 17 certainly against public law and morals. An active partici-18 pant of the older organization should not be able to evade this, 19 but the court is constrained to insist that it is correct.
20 Except for two matters not connected with his responsibility 21 work, the court would be compelled to hold that there is an entire 22 dearth of evidence against petitioner. There are the evidence of 23 attorney Wallister and Superior Judge Busick. As to the testi-24 mony of the former, it will be recalled that he does not charge it.
25 This will be noted of fact with him, although he did say at one 26 time that he thought he had taken an unfair advantage of him.
27 However, it is not insisted that there was any forcible agreement 28 that the case should be continued, hence there could be no very 29 serious breach of faith. It increases the court as a case where 30 each party was taking too much for granted. A misunderstanding 31 as to continuance is not ground for denying citizenship.
32 The occurrences testified to by Judge Busick constitute far the most serious matter. It appears rather clearly that the 10 The occurrences testified to by Judge Busick constitute

Certif

The petitioner, P.J. Wilkie, is an applicant for Naturalization before this court. Objections to the granting of his petition have been filed and the matter has been regularly heard. The chief contention of the Government and of the parties filing objections is that the petitioner is not a man of good moral character,

The chief acts charged against him consist of his relations to an organization known under the name of the "American Masonic Federation" of which he is a member and propagandist. It is charged that he represented to divers persons that the aforesaid organization is the well known fraternity known as Free and Accepted Masons, and that thereby he induced them to become members of this little known organization. The evidence upon this point is practically a blank.

The real delinquency of the petitioner appears to be, as viewed by the objectors, that is a member of this organization. But the court is compelled to hold that this is not a crime nor even a moral shortcoming. There is no claim that the organization is treasonable, that it teaches bad morals or that it is otherwise opposed to the well-being of the people. That the ~~the~~ major organization is one of the highest in our midst is no argument that the other is the opposite. In truth, the inquiry does not involve the merits of the two organizations. It would, of course, be a moral and a legal crime for a person to misrepresent the purposes or standing of an organization and thereby defraud innocent victims out of their money. But there is no suspicion that the applicant has been guilty of this or has connived at it in others. It seems that every applicant for admission into it is required to sign a written declaration that he knows that it has no connection with the order of Free and Accepted Masons. It is true that such a precaution is not conclusive and that it may under certain conditions and with certain illiterate people be a clumsy device to defraud them and still seek thereby to evade the law. But it would be impossible for the court to speculate this without proof. Two witnesses have testified that the reputation of petitioner is not good, and one other has somewhat questioned it. But these manifest-base their criticisms upon the fact that he is a member of this Federation organization. It is apparent that the chief real criticism of petitioner in connection with this organization is the fact that it seems to be patterned after and an encroachment upon the older organization. This appears especially in the ~~xxxx~~ use of its name of American Masonic Federation; yet it would take much hardihood on the part of the court to deny to an applicant the right of citizenship for this reason alone. It is true, as above suggested that the use of the organization to defraud members of their money would be a crime, but if the applicant and other persons choose to align themselves with this order, it is certainly against neither law nor good morals. An active partisan of the older organization might not be able to concede this, but the court is constrained to insist that it is correct.

Except for two matters not connected with his propagandist work, the court would be compelled to hold that there is an entire dearth of evidence against petitioner. These are the evidence of Attorney McAlister and Superior Judge Busick. As to the testimony of the former, it will be recalled that he does not charge Mr. Wilkie with breach of faith with him, although he did say at one time that he thought he had taken an unfair advantage of him. However, it is not insisted that there was any specific agreement that the case should be continued, hence there could be no very serious breach of faith. It impresses the court as a case where each party was taking too much for granted. A misunderstanding as to a continuance is not ground for denying citizenship.

The occurrences testified to by Judge Busick constitute far the most serious matter. It appears rather clearly that the petitioner stated that he desired a continuance of this proceeding and that shortly afterward when insisting upon an immediate hearing, he denied having agreed to or asked for a continuance. It must be held that this was a serious infraction of the privileges of petitioner and a grave reflection upon his character. The most important matter is the statement by petitioner that Judge

Busick said to him that he, petitioner, could never get his naturalization papers in his court and that he would be indicted if he did not withdraw from said organization. Judge Busick testifies with great emphasis that he did not say these things or anything like them. Judge Busick is a disinterested witness. In truth, it appears that, up to the time of the commencement of this proceeding, he was a decided friend of petitioner. The petitioner is highly interested. There appears to be no motive to account for the testimony of Judge Busick if it is not the truth. The court is forced to this conclusion. This occurrence betrays a state of mind utterly incompatible with good citizenship. The court is willing to believe that it occurred during the excitement of the moment and in view of the fact that a number of persons were opposing his petition. Apart from these occurrences, the court would be inclined to grant the petition.

Let an order be entered denying the petition.
